Press Release

The Women Entrepreneurship Summit is being organized at NIESBUD on 8th March, 2014 to deliberate on the challenges and solutions thereof in the area of Women Entrepreneurship. The Summit was inaugurated by Mrs. Stuti Kacker, Secretary, Ministry of Disability Affairs, Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, Government of India. While touching upon many issues relating to women entrepreneurship, she emphasized on managing one's own finance especially in country like India. Economic empowerment would naturally lead to social upliftment. Therefore, entrepreneurship is the answer to the women empowerment. The three plenary sessions discussed in details the issue of challenges being faced by women and they were quite vocal about socio-cultural mindset of the society which is not allowing the women to achieve the level which otherwise they deserve to get. These recommendations shall be shared with the concerned organizations and the Ministries for necessary action at their end as well to form an opinion in the society. The valedictory address was given by Shri S N Tripathi, Joint Secretary, Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises, Government of India, wherein he highlighted that what women can achieve, men cannot even think of. He pointed out that financial management of a housewife is an indicator of the fact that women can manage business as well, however, by design they are denied to get the place in the society as well as in the business world. He was sure that recommendations of deliberations shall enrich all of us in forming new plan of action for the betterment of women's right.
