

PRESS RELEASE

NIESBUD organizes Global Summit on “Make in India: Transforming Human Resources and Strategic Development” on 19-20 March 2015

Global Summit on “Make in India: Transforming Human Resources and Strategic Development” organized by The National Institute for Entrepreneurship and Small Business Development (NIESBUD) was inaugurated by Shri Kumar Tuhin, Joint Secretary, Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India on 19-20 March 2015. The Summit aims to bring together the most inventive and influential leaders in HR locally and from across the world to provide unparalleled insights into the latest human resources and leadership management practices. It is attended by more than 125 delegates from 26 countries including Afghanistan, Argentina, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Cambodia, Colombia, Dominican Republic, Ethiopia, Ghana, Indonesia, Macedonia, Myanmar, Poland, Russia, Sri Lanka, Suriname, Mauritius, Nigeria, South Sudan, Tanzania, Niger, Malawi, South Africa, Zambia, India and Zimbabwe. Various Academicians and Industry delegates from Delhi/NCR, Pune, Meerut, Punjab, Rajasthan, Orissa and other parts of India are participating and presenting their research papers during the Global Summit. Shri Arun Kumar Jha, Director General, NIESBUD while welcoming the Chief guest Shri Kumar Tuhin, JS, emphasized on the significance of Human resource development in India in order to become the leader country in terms of GDP and growth rate. Shri Kumar Tuhin during his inaugural address welcomed all the researchers and presenters and appreciated the efforts of NIESBUD in organizing the Global Summit. The crucial issues like Strategic Career progression for creating enterprising youth and various Human Resource Development's challenges and opportunities were discussed in length during the first day of Summit.